EPC Review & Decision

After review of evidence provided by the complainant and review of the respondents' statements, EPC decided no sanctions will be administered to the respondents. The EPC determined that the respondent speaking about his campaign at a USG meeting is not considered participation in a sponsored event; and therefore, the process in which the campaigning was conducted is not in violation of EPC rules & regulations. Furthermore, the EPC determined there was not malicious intent at the time of the respondent's speaking engagement; therefore, there was no violation of the EPC rules & regulations as it relates to negative campaigning.
