IV. DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS

A. General.
Students who violate the University’s Standards of Conduct may be subject to one or more of the following disciplinary actions:

1. Warning: A written warning is an official notice to the student that his/her behavior has violated the Standards of Conduct of the University of Illinois at Chicago. A letter of warning serves as a notification to the student that further misconduct could result in additional disciplinary action.

2. Developmental Sanction: An assigned task or tasks intended to involve the student in a positive learning experience appropriate to the violation. Sanctions of this type include but are not limited to: service to the community, involvement with an established university program or committee (e.g.: Student Leadership Training, writing center, alcohol education workshop, ethics training program), or a writing assignment.

3. Recommended Counseling: A recommendation that a student participate in personal counseling sessions. In the event that a student chooses to participate in the counseling sessions, these sessions may be provided by either the University Counseling Center or by a non-university affiliated counselor of the student’s choosing, but should be with a licensed, professional psychologist or psychiatrist. The student can facilitate communication between the counselor and Executive Director/hearing committee where appropriate. Any communications of this sort will not occur without the student’s written consent. The number of counseling sessions in which the student participates is at the discretion of the student's counselor.

4. Restitution and Fines: A payment required to obtain reimbursement for costs associated with or resulting from damage, destruction, loss or theft of property belonging to the University and/or others or increased maintenance or repair costs for the University and/or others. In the case of injury to any person, payment of all medical, hospital and other expenses of the injured person may be required. Proof of full payment shall be required to clear the student's disciplinary record and failure to make payment may result in further disciplinary action.

5. Failure or Grade Modification: The assignment of a failing grade or modified grade for a course, assignment, paper or examination following an adjudication of academic dishonesty according to these procedures. No grade shall be modified without the consent of the instructor. The student may also be required to redo the original assignment or paper, and/or retake the examination.

6. University Probation: University probation is a formal notice to the student that his/her behavior is unacceptable within the university community. University probation requires that the student demonstrate during the probationary period that he/she is capable of functioning in a way which does not violate the university’s Standards of Conduct. University probation covers a specified period and includes stated requirements. At the end of the specified period, a determination will be made whether the student has met the stated requirements or should be subject to further disciplinary action due to failure to meet those requirements. The terms of the probation may include any or all of the following: a requirement that the student report regularly to a member of the administration or faculty; a restriction on participation in co-curricular student activities; a denial of access to university facilities and grounds; or the imposition of other appropriate conditions. A member of the faculty or administration may be named to supervise the terms of the probation. If the student violates the terms of probation, the responsible committee will meet to impose further disciplinary action, which could include an extension of the probation. The responsible committee may also choose to outline, in the letter describing the details of the probation, the consequences for non-compliance. Probation will be noted on the disciplinary record and may be noted on the transcript.

7. Suspension: Exclusion from the University of Illinois at Chicago for a specified period. A student may be required to fulfill one or more conditions during his/her suspension in order to be readmitted. This action may also include the suspension of graduation privileges and the issuance of diplomas.
in consultation with representatives of the colleges. The student has the right to reenter the University or to have his/her privileges reinstated after the specified period only if he/she provides the required verification that the conditions of suspension, if any, have been met. In those circumstances, the student need not reapply for admission. The suspension may be noted on the student's transcript or disciplinary record at the direction of the responsible committee.

8. Dismissal: Exclusion from the University as a whole, including the Chicago campus for a specified period, with the right to reapply for admission at the end of that period. Readmission is not automatic or guaranteed. Each case shall be reviewed by the appropriate college. This action may include the suspension of graduation privileges and issuance of diplomas in consultation with representatives of the colleges. Dismissal will be noted permanently on the student's transcript and disciplinary records.

9. Expulsion: Permanent exclusion from the University as a whole, including the Chicago campus, and termination of all rights and privileges associated with student status. The student shall not be readmitted to any campus of the University of Illinois. This action may include the cancellation of graduation privileges and the withdrawal of or refusal to award diplomas, in consultation with representatives of the colleges. Expulsion will be noted permanently on the student's transcript and disciplinary record.

B. Students in Campus Housing.
In addition to the disciplinary actions listed above, students living in campus housing facilities may be subject to one or more of the following disciplinary actions:

10. Residence Hall Probation: Residence Hall probation is a formal notice to the student that his/her behavior is unacceptable in the residence halls and continued misconduct could result in further disciplinary action. Residence Hall probation covers a specified period and includes stated requirements.

11. Residence Hall Reassignment: The student would be required to move to another room assignment within the residence hall system.

12. Residence Hall Contract Suspension: The student would be required to vacate his/her residence hall room for a specified time period. This action could be imposed for student conduct which causes harm to another person and/or to himself/herself. Campus Housing reserves the right to immediately suspend a student from the residence halls pending student judicial action.

13. Residence Hall Contract Termination: Termination of the Residence Hall contract will result in removal from the residence halls (typically the removal will occur in 3 to 5 days), full financial responsibility for room and board charges up to the date of check-out, loss of visitation privileges in any university housing facilities, and other substantial penalties.

C. Student Organizations
In addition to the disciplinary sanctions listed in Section IV- A, student organizations may be subject to one or more of the following disciplinary actions:

14. Warning: A written notice informing the student organization and the officers/members that any future misconduct may result in more serious disciplinary action. A copy of the warning may be sent to national organization representatives, officers, or advisors.

15. Educational Activities: Educational activities are required activities intended to involve student organization members in a positive learning experience. The type of activities required may include, but are not limited to, developing or participating in a campus or community service project, a writing assignment, attending an educational workshop, or presenting a program on a subject matter related to the violation.

16. Probation: Probation may be for one or two academic terms, or until a fixed date within one year of imposition; and shall consist of the withdrawal of certain privileges, including but not limited to any or all of the following: the right to hold meetings, to recruit new members, to reserve booths or any university facilities, to distribute literature, to advertise, or to post notices. Probation serves notice that any future misconduct during the probationary period may result in more serious disciplinary action.

17. Withdrawal of Registration: Removal of the name of the organization from the list of registered organizations which will result in the termination and denial of all privileges granted to registered organizations for a specified period.

D. Records Encumbrance.
The AVCSA may encumber student records until the student has successfully complied with and completed all requirements stated in the written notice containing the hearing outcome and the disciplinary sanctions imposed. In addition, student records may be encumbered for failure to cooperate with the student disciplinary procedures.
